IN PROCESSION, HYMN 102

“Once in royal David’s city”

Irby

- Soloist* Once in royal David’s city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.
- Choir* He came down to earth from heaven, who is God and Lord of all, and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall;
with the poor, the scorned, the lowly, lived on earth our Savior holy.
- Choir* We, like Mary, rest confounded that a stable should display heaven’s Word, the world’s creator, cradled there on Christmas Day, yet this child, our Lord and brother, brought us love for one another.
- Choir* For he is our lifelong pattern; daily, when on earth he grew, he was tempted, scorned, rejected, tears and smiles like us he knew.
Thus he feels for all our sadness, and he shares in all our gladness.
- All* And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love;
for that child who seemed so helpless is our Lord in heaven above;
and he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.
- All* Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing round, we shall see him; but in heaven, where his saints his throne surround:
Christ, revealed to faithful eye, set at God’s right hand on high.

THE BIDDING PRAYER, THE LORD’S PRAYER, AND THE GRACE

The People remain standing. The Officiant says

Dear People of God: In this Christmas Season, let it be our duty and delight to hear once more the message of the Angels, to go to Bethlehem and see the Son of God lying in a manger.

Let us hear and heed in Holy Scripture the story of God's loving purpose from the time of our rebellion against him until the glorious redemption brought to us by his holy Child Jesus, and let us make this place glad with our carols of praise. But first, let us pray for the needs of his whole world, for peace and justice on earth, for the unity and mission of the Church for which he died, and especially for his Church in our country and in this city. And because he particularly loves them, let us remember in his name the poor and helpless, the cold, the hungry and the oppressed, the sick and those who mourn, the lonely and unloved, the aged and little children, as well as all those who do not know and love the Lord Jesus Christ. Finally, let us remember before God his pure and lowly Mother, and that whole multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in Jesus, we are one for evermore.

And now, to sum up all these petitions, let us pray in the words which Christ himself has taught us, saying:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Priest blesses the people

The Almighty God bless us with his grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and to the fellowship of the citizens above, may the King of Angels bring us all. Amen.

The People are seated.

THE INVITATORY CAROL

Verbum caro factum est

15th c. English Carol

Verbum caro factum est; habitavit in nobis. Alleluia.

The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. Alleluia.

The Lord hath made known His salvation. Alleluia.

Prope invocavit me Pater meus es tu. Alleluia.

Nigh to me, he called unto me, Thou art my Father. Alleluia.

THE FIRST LESSON

Genesis 3:8-15

Lector A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." The LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."

THE SECOND LESSON

Isaiah 60:1-6, 19

Lector A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Arise, shine for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD. The sun shall no longer be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you by night; but the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

Surge illuminare Jerusalem

William Byrd

Surge illuminare Jerusalem, quia venit lumen tuum et gloria Domini super te orta est. Alleluia.

Arise, shine forth in splendor, Jerusalem, for thy light hath now appeared; and the glory of the Lord over thee hath arisen. Alleluia.

THE THIRD LESSON

Isaiah 9:2, 6-7

Lector A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness - on them light has shined. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Thomas Morley

You that wont my pipes to sound, daintily to tread your ground, Shepherds leave your pasture sweet. Lirum, lirum, lirum.

Here met together in winter weather, hand in hand uniting,
The Holy Child come greet. Lirum, lirum, lirum.

Lo triumphing brave comes He, all in pomp and Majesty, Monarch of the world and King. Lirum, lirum, lirum.

Let whoso list Him, dare to resist Him, we our voice uniting,
His praise shall ever sing. Lirum, lirum, lirum.

"O little town of Bethlehem"

Forest Green

All O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

All For Christ is born of Mary; and gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth!
and praises sing to God the King, and peace to men on earth.

Choir How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

All O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel!

*The People are seated.THE FOURTH LESSON

Isaiah 11:2, 4, 6-9

Lector A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

The spirit of the LORD shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. But with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

The Holly and the Ivy

English Traditional
Arr. H. Walford Davies

The holly and the ivy, when they are both full grown;
Of all the trees that are in the wood, the holly bears the crown.

*Refrain: Oh, the rising of the sun, and the running of the deer;
The playing of the merry organ, sweet singing in the choir.*

The holly bears a blossom, as white as lily flower;
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, to be our sweet Saviour.
Refrain.

The holly bears a berry, as red as any blood;
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ to do poor sinners good.
Refrain.

The holly bears a prickle, as sharp as any thorn;
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, on Christmas Day in the morn. Refrain.

The holly bears a bark, as bitter as any gall;
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, for to redeem us all.
Refrain.

THE FIFTH LESSON

Luke 1:26-35, 38

Lector A Reading from the Gospel of Luke.

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

Angelus ad virginem

Melody c. 1250, Arr. David Willcocks

Angelus ad virginem subintrans in conclave. Virginis formidinem demulcens inquit "Ave." Ave regina virginum, coeliteraque dominum concipies et paries intacta, salutem hominum. Tu porta coeli facta medella criminum.

Quomodo conciperem, quae virum non cognovi? Qualiter infringerem, quae firma mente vovi? Spiritus sancti gratia perficiet haec omnia; ne timaes, sed gaudeas, segura, quod castimonia manebit in te pura Dei potentia.'

Ad haec virgo nobilis respondens inquit ei; 'Ancilla sum humilis Omnipotentis Dei. Tibi coelesti nuntio, tanta secreti conscio, consentiens et cupiens videre factum quod audio, parata sum parere Dei consilio.'

Eia Mater Domini, quae pacem reddidisti angelis et homini, cum Christum genuisti; tuem exora filium ut se nobis propitium exhibeat, et deleat peccata; praestans auxilium vita frui beta post hoc exsilium.

Gabriel to Mary came, and entered at her dwelling, with his salutation glad her maiden fears dispelling, 'All hail, thou Queen of virgins bright! God, Lord of earth and heaven's height, thy very Son, shall soon be born in pureness, the Savior of mankind. Thou art the gate of heaven bright, the sinners' healer kind.'

'How could I a mother be that am to man a stranger? How should I my strong resolve, my solemn vows endanger?' 'Pow'r from the Holy Ghost on high shall bring to pass this mystery. Then have no fear: be of good cheer, believing that thy chastity in God's almighty keeping shall unsullied be.'

Then to him the maid replied, with noble mien supernal, 'Lo! the humble handmaid I of God the Lord eternal! With thee, bright messenger of heav'n, by whom this wondrous news is giv'n, I well agree and long to see fulfilled they gracious prophesy. As God my Lord doth will it, so be it unto me!'

Hail! Thou Mother of the Lord, who bring'st of gifts the rarest, peace to angels and to men, when Christ the Lord thou barest! Do thou, we pray, entreat thy son for us our long'd redemption Himself to win, and from our sin release us; His succor for to give, that, when we hence are taken, we too in heav'n may live.

HYMN 105

“God rest you merry, gentlemen”

God rest you merry

God rest you merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay;
remember Christ our Savior was born on Christmas Day, to save us all from Satan’s power when we were gone astray.

Refrain: O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy; O tidings of comfort and joy!

From God our heavenly Father a blessed angel came and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same:
how that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name. Refrain “Fear not, then,” said the angel, “Let nothing you affright;

this day is born a Savior of a pure virgin bright, to free all those who trust in him from Satan’s power and might.” Refrain

Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place, and with true love and charity each other now embrace;
this holy tide of Christmas doth bring redeeming grace. Refrain

THE SIXTH LESSON

Luke 2:1-7

Lector A Reading from the Gospel of Luke.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Nightingale Carol

Melody: Wilhelm Dörfler
Arr. Andrew Carter

Nightingales in woodland calling
Summer songs though snow is falling;
Jesus Christ my heart is warming,
Born on winter’s summer morning.

Soft the roses crimson petal.
Golden heart like precious metal, Blooming bright though winds are chilling,
All the air with fragrance filling.

Pure and tall and white are growing Lillies where the snow is blowing,
As the waiting world lies dreaming,
Rays of rising sun are gleaming.

Joyfully white doves replying,
Winter harsh and cold defying,
Through the storm clouds gladly flying
To the Babe in manger lying.

Joyful as the birdsong calling,
Peaceful as a petal falling,
Glorious as the sun at dawning:
Christ our winter’s summer morning.

THE SEVENTH LESSON

Luke 2:8-20

Lector A Reading from the Gospel of Luke.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Torches

John Joubert

Torches, torches, run with torches
All the way to Bethlehem!
Christ is born and now lies sleeping:
Come and sing your song to him!

Ah, Roro, Roro, my baby,
Ah, Roro, my love, Roro;
Sleep you well, my heart's own darling,
While we sing you our Roro.

Sing, my friends, and make you merry,
Joy and mirth and joy again;
Lo, he lives, the king of heaven,
Now and evermore. Amen.

The little road to Bethlehem

Michael Head

As I walked down the road at set of sun,
The lambs were coming homewards one by one.
I heard a sheepbell softly calling them,
Along the little road to Bethlehem.

Beside an open door as I drew nigh,
I heard sweet Mary sing a lullaby.
She sang about the lambs at close of day,
And rocked her tiny King among the hay.

Across the air the silver sheepbells rang,
"The lambs are coming home," sweet Mary sang.
"Your star of gold, your star of gold is shining in the sky,
So sleep, my little King, go lullaby."

As I walked down the road at set of sun,
The lambs were coming homewards one by one.
I heard a sheepbell softly calling them,
Along the little road to Bethlehem.

"While shepherds watched their flocks by night"

Winchester Old

All While shepherds watched their flocks by night, all seated on the ground, the angel of the Lord came down, and glory shone around.

All "Fear not," said he, for mighty dread had seized their troubled mind;
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and all mankind.

Choir "To you, in David's town, this day is born of David's line the Savior, who is Christ the Lord; and this shall be the sign:

Choir "The heavenly Babe you there shall find to human view displayed, all meanly wrapped in swathing bands, and in a manger laid."

All Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith appeared a shining throng of angels praising God, who thus addressed their joyful song:

All "All glory be to God on high and on the earth be peace;
good will henceforth from heaven to men begin and never cease."

THE EIGHTH LESSON

Matthew 2:1-12

Lector A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

THE NINTH LESSON

John 1:1-14

Lector A Reading from the Gospel of John.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.
